This question is asked by Microsoft. Given an array of strings, return the longest common prefix that is shared amongst all strings.
Note: you may assume all strings only contain lowercase alphabetical characters.

Ex: Given the following arrays...

["colorado", "color", "cold"], return "col"
["a", "b", "c"], return ""
["spot", "spotty", "spotted"], return "spot"
```

Thanks,
The Daily Byte
